

Welcome to Workday – A new chapter for Landal

Go live
Monday, October 13, 2025
For all colleagues

What is Workday?

We start rolling out our new HR system for everything from time-off to expenses – all in one place. The rollout will happen in steps. Step one starts on October 13, 2025.

When is it going live?

Workday launches on Monday, October 13, 2025, for all Landal colleagues. Managers are already attending training. Workers will find instructions below.

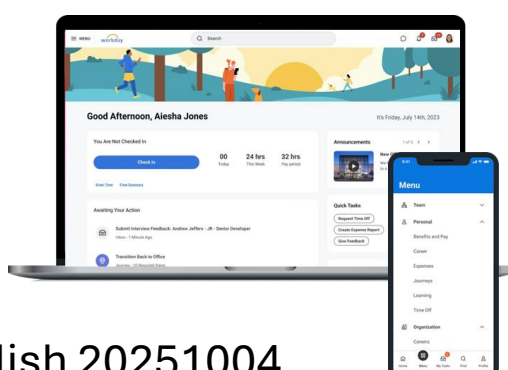

When and how will I be informed?

On Monday, October 13, 2025, you'll get three emails on launch day with your login details and instructions. We will send the information to the email that you have given us or your work email.

Scan the QR code to visit the Workday @ Landal website and learn more! Go to your country page to find the information in your local language.
